

Uses

ID	407
Crop ID	Cobweb house-leek
Part	Leaf
Use Category	Medicinal
Notes	The leaves are emollient, haemostatic, ophthalmic and sedative. The crushed plant, or its juice, is applied externally to boils, wounds etc and is also used to stop nose bleeds. The slightly warmed juice has been used to relieve ear inflammations and toothaches can be relieved by chewing on the leaves.
Metadata ID	7,599