

Uses

ID	576
Crop ID	African Nut Tree
Part	Bark
Use Category	Medicinal
Notes	Bark of the root and stem is used in decoctions or lotions to treat constipation, cough, dysentery, rheumatism, rickets in children, oedema, elephantiasis, fungal infection, blennorrhoea, painful menstruation, and to prevent miscarriage, relieve pain in pregnant women, cure infertility in women, give strength to premature babies, and to mature abscesses, furuncles and buboes.
Metadata ID	7,946