

Uses

ID	606
Crop ID	Jatropha
Part	Root
Use Category	Medicinal
Notes	A decoction of the roots is a cure for diarrhoea and gonorrhoea. In Madagascar a decoction of the leaves and roots is taken to treat malaria. Dried and pulverized root bark is made into poultices and is taken internally to expel worms and to treat jaundice.
Metadata ID	8,017